

Board Policy Application to Exhibit Art

Use of Library Space for Art Exhibits

The purpose of this policy is to establish the conditions and context within which, Vancouver Island Regional Library provides space for art exhibits by local community artists. VIRL enriches lives and communities through universal access to knowledge, lifelong learning and literacy.

Branches with adequate space may provide display or exhibit space to their local communities. Application to use designated spaces should be in writing.

The Board accepts materials within the following guidelines:

1. Application for display space must be made to the Library Manager by individuals or groups;
2. Preference is given to displays and exhibits promoting interests in the Library's collections, or information services, or mission of the Board and is appropriate for all ages;
3. Beyond the application process, the display requires no staff time or direct expense to the library;
4. All art is 'display ready', suitable for exhibition in unprotected public areas accessible to all and is suitable for the specific environment;
5. The exhibitor is responsible for delivery, set up and removal of all art, as well as the means for displaying;
6. The displays are for a specific time period (6 weeks);
7. Sales of art are not permitted;
8. Insurance is supplied by the exhibitor.

The Board, its employees and agents are not responsible for loss, damage or theft of displayed items.
