

Board Policy Rules of Conduct

Rules of Conduct

The purpose of this policy is to enhance the protection and safety of those using Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) and to ensure that a visit to a library is a pleasant experience. Violation of the Rules of Conduct may result in suspension of privileges and or expulsion from library premises.

- Abusive, discriminatory, harassing, illegal, threatening or violent conduct or language of any kind is not permitted.
- Persons engaging in disruptive behaviours will be escorted off the premises.
- Persons may be required to make available for inspection all bags and carrying cases when leaving the premises.
- The use of alcohol, illegal drugs and the possession of illegal drug paraphernalia is not allowed on library premises.
- Smoking inside library buildings and within three metres of any library is not permitted.
- Persons found stealing, damaging or defacing VIRL property or materials will have their library privileges cancelled and may be prosecuted under the Criminal Code.
- Parents, guardians and caregivers must provide supervision and care of their children while on library premises.
- VIRL does not accept any responsibility for personal items, lost or stolen on its premises. Loitering on library premises before, during and/or after hours is not permitted.
- Library materials cannot be taken into the washroom.
- Members of the public must obey copyright laws, licensing agreements and other intellectual property rights.
- Shoes and shirts must be worn.
- Roller blades, skate boards and other sports equipment may not be used in the library.
- Pets are not allowed on the premises, with the exception of trained assistance animals and/or those approved for library programs.
- Soliciting, canvassing, selling or distributing unsolicited materials on library property is prohibited.
- Authorization from the Director of Library Services or designate must be obtained for photographing, filming or video recording on all library premises.

Policy Approved: June 2009

Revisions Approved: November 2014