

Media Advisory

Nanaimo Harbourfront Library Temporary Computer Area Closed for Renovation

NANAIMO, August 6th, 2015 – The temporary computer space located at the temporary Nanaimo Harbourfront branch of Vancouver Island Regional Library at 84 Commercial St. will be temporarily closed for renovation on August 7th, 2015. The temporary computer space was opened on April 2nd alongside a temporary branch at 84 Commercial Street to provide customers with continued library service while the Nanaimo Harbourfront branch (located at 90 Commercial St.) is being closed for refurbishment.

The temporary computer space will be reopened on August 25th. The refurbished Nanaimo Harbourfront branch is scheduled for reopening in the Fall, 2015.

###

Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) is the fifth largest library system in British Columbia. We serve over 430,000 people on Vancouver Island, Haida Gwaii, and Bella Coola on the Central Coast through 39 branch libraries, a virtual branch, and a books-by-mail service. VIRL's holdings number one-million and include books, magazines, CD's and DVD's. Administrative offices are located in Nanaimo.

For more information contact:

Natasha Bartlett
Marketing and Communications Officer
250-327-3114
nbartlett@virl.bc.ca