

Press Release

It's an Open House at the New Campbell River Library!

NANAIMO, October 27th, 2015 – The public is invited to an Open House celebration at the newly refurbished Campbell River branch of Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL)!

On November 28th at 1:00pm, the Campbell River Library will open its doors to the public in celebration. New and familiar customers can explore their newly refreshed Library, which includes new furniture throughout the branch, two additional computer stations, a laptop bar, comfortable seat cushions and a literacy area for children – as well as refreshed paint and ceilings.

The public is invited to come and explore their Campbell River branch, pick out a good read, visit with staff and meet with friends in their new but familiar Library space.

The Open House will also feature entertainment and refreshments for the public.

The Campbell River Library is open Monday – Thursday (10am – 8pm), Friday & Saturday (10am – 5pm) and closed Sunday and Holidays.

For more information, contact your Campbell River branch at 250-287-3655 (or campbellriver@virl.bc.ca) or at info@virl.bc.ca or toll-free 1-877-415-VIRL.

Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) is the fifth-largest library system in British Columbia. We serve over 430,000 people on Vancouver Island, Haida Gwaii, and Bella Coola on the Central Coast through 39 branch libraries, a virtual branch, and a books-by-mail service. VIRL's holdings number one million and include books, magazines, CDs and DVDs. Administrative offices are located in Nanaimo.
