Quadra Island Branch expanding hours of operation

CAMPBELL RIVER January 3, 2013 – The Quadra Island Branch of Vancouver Island Regional Library is expanding its hours of operation effective January 7, 2013.

The new hours of operation are:

Tuesday, Friday and Saturday: 10 am to 5 pm

Wednesday, Thursday: 1:00 pm to 8:00 pm

CLOSED: Sunday and Monday

“We are very pleased to open an additional six hours per week,” says Library Manager Timothy Skye. “We are now open from 1 pm to 8:00 pm on both Wednesdays and Thursdays in order to serve our customers better.”

There has been a steady increase in customers since the branch relocated in March 2012 to the Cove Centre Mall in Quathiaski Cove. The new branch is more than three times the size of the former branch with room for more books, CDs, DVDs, newspapers, magazines, and computers. Come and check out your new library!

Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) is the fourth largest library system in British Columbia. We serve over 430,000 people on Vancouver Island, Haida Gwaii, and Bella Coola on the Central Coast through 38 branch libraries, a virtual branch, and a “Books by Mail” service. VIRL’s holdings number over one million and include books, magazines, CDs and DVDs. Administrative offices are located in Nanaimo.
