Hundreds of digital magazines now available at Vancouver Island Regional Library

NANAIMO, January 7, 2013 – Access the world’s largest digital newsstand at the library!

Vancouver Island Regional Library is the latest public library system to subscribe to Zinio, a mobile reading application that gives library customers access to digital editions of hundreds of popular magazines. If you have a library card you can search and select from hundreds of magazines that look just like the real thing!

Zinio allows you to move seamlessly within each publication from text to interactive graphics to animated illustrations and video”, says Fiona Anderson, Director of Library Services. “You can use the magazine’s table of contents to jump to specific articles and the zoom feature is a bonus for readers who like bigger print.”

You can read online or download your favourites to your home computer, tablet or smartphone. And it’s all free with your library card! Titles include Consumer Reports, Good Housekeeping, US Weekly, The Economist, and Golf Magazine.

With Zinio you can subscribe to as many magazines as you like and enjoy full colour photographs. It’s just like reading a real magazine.

Visit www.virl.bc.ca and click on the blue and white Zinio button to sign up.

Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) is the fourth largest library system in British Columbia. We serve over 430,000 people on Vancouver Island, Haida Gwaii, and Bella Coola on the Central Coast through 38 branch libraries, an eLibrary at www.virl.bc.ca and a Books by Mail service. VIRL’s holdings number over one million and include books, magazines, CD’s and DVD’s. Administrative offices are located in Nanaimo.
