

Give Library this Holiday Season

Monday, December 4, 2017, Nanaimo, BC: What could be better than a gift that educates, informs, and entertains, all for free? This holiday season, Vancouver Island Regional Library (VIRL) invites people to "Give Library" with beautifully packaged library cards for kids and adults. They're perfect for anyone who loves to read books, watch movies, listen to music, learn languages, play games, and so much more.

"We're so excited to be launching our Give Library campaign," says VIRL's Executive Director Rosemary Bonanno. "A library card opens near infinite doors of discovery and possibility to anyone lucky enough to have one. I can't think of a better gift to give this holiday season."

Here's a snapshot of just some of the resources available with a library card:

- Access to millions of books, ebooks, and audiobooks
- Critically-acclaimed streaming movies
- Free downloadable mp3 music
- Video games
- A global selection of magazines and newspapers
- Lifelong learning opportunities

The Give Library campaign hits all VIRL branches in early December. Supplies are limited, so people are encouraged to visit their library early to pick up their cards before they're gone.
