New Nanaimo Wellington Library branch opening May 23

Tuesday, May 16, 2017, Nanaimo, BC – The brand-new Wellington Library opens to the public on May 23. Located in Country Club Centre, the new purpose-built facility offers Wellington library users an improved library experience.

In addition to an exciting new location, the purpose-built facility will provide:

- Space for a community-tailored collection, including new books, magazines, newspapers, DVDs, and CDs
- The same hours of operation as the old facility
- New public computers
- Computer stations with literacy software specifically for children
- Comfortable lounge seating for reading, quiet study areas, collaborative spaces, and areas for children's programs

An official grand opening is being planned for Saturday, July 8 at the new library that will include speeches, entertainment, and tours of the new facility. Vancouver Island Regional Library would like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding during construction.
